

UFO-OBSERVATIONS 2007/2008 – PART TWO (pp. 130-145)

The second part of a summary on the gigantic German wave of the last two years, mainly triggered by misidentifications of Thai lanterns. These are often travelling in groups of up to 20 lights. In some cases, the starters of the balloons came forward afterwards.

THE ERICH VON DÄNIKEN FOUNDATION IN NAZCA (pp. 146-148)

A survey sponsored by the Erich von Däniken Foundation has discovered magnetic anomalies at several of the Nazca lines – as, indeed, they should, as this is the normal way for archaeologists to find settlements. All in all, these findings are nothing unexpected, and certainly do not support Däniken's interpretation of the site.

BRIEF NOTES (p. 149)

UFOs Over Berlin: A brief review of two sightings of a vague optic stimulus which have been reported in Berlin at the end of October 1954.

Drones at TV-Series: The drones which made headlines last year are being incorporated into a new TV series, the Sarah Connor Chronicles.

REVIEWS (p. 128)

No English language books were reviewed in this issue.